

Democracy is in real danger when too few people own too much. Our future is very precarious with the spread of nuclear weapons and war being considered a "good thing". Our only safeguard is a truly informed electorate. Media that is motivated by profit and control instead of good journalism reporting will be our downfall.